Celebrity's Northern Europe

Celebrity's Northern Europe

Old World, new views.

Northern Europe will profoundly alter your perceptions of people and places, as well as time. Contrast the relics of medieval Scotland and artifacts dating back to the time of Viking explorers in Oslo with the energy of Berlin, the quiet sophistication of London, or the illumination of the Parisian skyline. The perspective will help you to see events not merely as points on a timeline but as a rich tapestry of old and new. These breathtaking destinations, along with the many shore excursions offered on each Celebrity cruise and cruisetour, will bring this tapestry to life for you in a most spectacular fashion.

Cultural Masterpieces at Every Stop Along the Way

You'll walk through some of the world's finest art museums, like the Louvre and the Hermitage, meandering from one masterful work to another, each more profound and more breathtaking than the last. You can drink the emerald landscape of Ireland's southwest coast, or perhaps drink in a pint of Guinness in a local pub. You'll stand in respectful, hushed silence inside Orthodox churches in Tallinn and St. Petersburg, surrounded by massive stained-glass windows. You'll ponder the legend of both real and mythical monarchs in castles like Versailles and Cawdor. And you'll find illumination in the far northern latitudes of Honningsvåg, Norway, where the sun shines nearly around the clock.

Explore Further

Integrate your Northern Europe cruise with a cruisetour, traveling beyond the coastline and into the heart of Europe's splendor. Spend an idyllic afternoon in a Parisian café, recounting the marvels you've witnessed that morning, like the view from the Eiffel Tower or Notre Dame Cathedral. Watch the changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace in England. Or take a boat tour through Amsterdam's complex network of canals. To ensure that you get the most out of every moment you spend with us in Europe, each Celebrity cruisetour will be accompanied by an experienced Tour Director fluent in the local language, who will serve as both knowledgeable guide and personal concierge.

EXPERIENCES OF A LIFETIME

Get the most out of your Northern Europe vacation, both on land and sea, with great cruisetour packages. See pages 32-33 or visit celebritycruises.com/cruisetours for details.

We suggest you book your shore excursions early. To view all shore excursion offerings and pricing, visit celebritycruises.com/shoreex.

With one staff member for every two guests, it's no wonder Celebrity delivers attentive service, offering such treats as complimentary hot cocoa or chilled towels upon returning from your shore excursions, depending on the weather. So go ahead and enjoy Northern Europe's ports and shore excursions to the fullest. We're ready to serve you every step of the way.

Northern Europe

These Northern Europe cruises and cruisetours are more than itineraries, they're carefully planned odysseys through some of the world's most beautiful and culturally significant places, with a wealth of in-depth shore excursions offered at each location. And of course, you will see it all while experiencing the rarified levels of comfort and service that only Celebrity Cruises® can provide.

Northern Europe Shore Excursions

Discover Europe's inner beauty.

There is so much here that invites closer inspection. Master craftsmen at the Delft factory in Amsterdam and the Waterford factory in Cork, Ireland, fabricate treasures before your very eyes. You'll explore spectacular Norwegian fjords by kayak. And you'll feel a hushed silence on the beaches of Normandy as you pause to honor past heroism. There are winding country roads to explore by bicycle and grand avenues on which to linger. There are museums and monasteries, pubs and public gardens. But above all, there is a dignified beauty here that awaits you.

- Explore Deep Fjords (Norway)
- Stroll Along Medieval Streets (Ireland)
- Biking in the Lowlands (Belgium)
- Tour Kronborg Castle (Denmark)
Site of Hamlet
- Tour Peter the Great's Castle (Russia)
- Sea Kayaking (Sweden)

Ålesund, Norway

Ålesund's architecture is known far and wide. Turrets, spires, and other whimsical art nouveau architectural touches give the town its distinctive, fairy-tale-like character. The scenic spectacle of the Geiranger Fjord, one of Norway's best-known attractions, is just a stone's throw from this quaint little town.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Saga Islands & Atlantic Sea Park, The Path of the Trolls, Ålesund City Walking Tour

Alta, Norway

The city of Alta is a welcome oasis set amid lush, tree-covered hills and valleys in the otherwise harsh and desolate Finnmark landscape. Its favorable climate, friendly inhabitants, and pleasant surroundings are just some of the reasons visitors have been attracted to this community at the head of the Alta Fjord year after year.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Alta Canyon, Alta Museum & Paeskatun Slate Quarry

Amsterdam, Netherlands

Amsterdam is a funky mix of old and new, coffee shops, and concentric canals. It's a blend of cultures, but still quintessentially Dutch. Take a boat tour along the canals to enjoy the distinct and beautiful personalities of the many bridges you'll see.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Amsterdam Sightseeing & Canal Cruise, Windmills & Edam, Volendam & Marken, Amsterdam & Anne Frank House

Ports of Call

Arctic Circle

(Scenic Cruising)

Above this line, about 66°N latitude, the summer sun remains above the horizon for at least one 24-hour period, offering a true opportunity to see a "midnight sun." And what a scene it will illuminate — massive fjords encrusted with glacial ice, dramatically sculpted icebergs, and water of the deepest blue.

Belfast, Northern Ireland

This vibrant, fast-moving city includes a fabulous dining scene, an active arts movement, and wonderful sightseeing and shopping — all on a walkable scale. Belfast is also known for its many Victorian and Edwardian buildings, complete with elaborate sculptures and stone-carved heads of gods, poets, scientists, kings, and queens.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Belfast - Past, Present & Future, Giant's Causeway, Leisurely Belfast & Panoramic Highlights

Bergen, Norway

Once the seat of medieval Norway, Bergen is a former Viking stronghold girded by deep fjords, towering mountains, and sweeping glaciers. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Bergen City & Trolldaugen Concert, Hiking Mount Fløyen, Bergen Culinary Walk, Bryggen Wharf & Its History

Berlin (Warnemünde), Germany

For so many years a city divided, Berlin is now united, not merely bringing together East and West, but cultures and languages from throughout the world. We'll access this excitingly eclectic city from Warnemünde, a charming old fishing town located at the mouth of the Warnow River.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Delightful Warnemünde, Medieval Flavors - Highlights of Rostock, Berlin Cultural Treasures

Ports of Call

Dublin, Ireland

With Dublin Bay to the east and the Dublin Mountains to the south, the capital of Ireland has clearly left quite an impression on the surrounding lands. As you explore the medieval streets around Dublin Castle and duck in for a tasty pint served up at Keating's Pub, you're certain to enjoy many great conversations sprinkled with the famous Irish wit.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Malahide Castle & Irish Pub, Panoramic Dublin, Irish Countryside & Glendalough

Edinburgh (S. Queensferry), Scotland

If ever there were a town made for walking, it would be Scotland's capital. Renowned as one of Europe's most attractive cities, Edinburgh's Old Town and New Town are a marvelous mixture of elegant streets, charming squares, and quaint alleyways. Of course, the city's most distinctive landmark is Edinburgh Castle, set high up on a craggy cliff in the center of the city.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Braveheart Country & Stirling Castle, City of Edinburgh & Castle, Da Vinci Trail — Rosslyn Chapel & Edinburgh

Flåm, Norway

The diminutive yet breathtakingly beautiful town of Flåm is nestled deep in a tributary of the world's longest and deepest fjord. Surrounded by steep mountainsides, roaring waterfalls, and deep valleys, visitors here experience a one-of-a-kind encounter with nature.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Overland to Myrdal, Geilo & Flåm, Tiny Undredal Valley Village, Kayaking in Flåm

Gdańsk (Gdynia), Poland

This medieval city's prime location along the Baltic Sea has made it one of the leading ports in central Europe. In Gdańsk, you'll find 1,000-year-old monuments and buildings that have been resurrected from near-ruin and returned to their original splendor. One section of town that never needs reviving, however, is the vibrant and bustling Long Market, the center of historic Gdańsk.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Malbork Castle, Gdańsk & Oliwa Cathedral, Leisurely Gdańsk

Harwich, England

Wander along the narrow streets of this city and you'll get a feel for its seafaring history. Be on the lookout for free-roaming reindeer grazing on the tundra on the outskirts of town.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: North Cape Transfer, Bird Safari, Deep Sea Rafting

Inverness/Loch Ness, Scotland

This charming, historic seaport on the banks of the River Ness has many quiet pleasures to offer. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Cawdor Castle & Culloden, Highland Castles & Loch Ness, Leisurely Scotland

Kirkwall, Scotland

The largest town in, and the capital of, the Orkney Islands, Kirkwall is the center of Orkney in more ways than one. Almost all roads linking the east and west pass through town; it is also the port that provides inter-island ferry links to almost all the northern isles. This charming city is also home to the Ramsdal Museum, featuring one of Norway's most impressive collections of folk art.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Atlantic Ocean Road & Fishing Village, Molde City & Folk Museum, Hiking Mt. Varden

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Rīga City Tour, Panoramic Rīga, Turaida & Sigulda

St. Peter Port, Channel Islands, UK

Lying just off the north coast of France (the southernmost point in the British Isles), the island of Guernsey is warmed by the temperate waters of the Gulf Stream. It is also the site of the famous Hauteville House, where exiled author Victor Hugo completed Les Misérables.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Guernsey Island Drive, Guernsey Island Cycle, Guernsey Military Occupation

St. Petersburg, Russia

Although reportedly built to resemble such western cities as London, Paris, and Vienna, one look at St. Petersburg's regal palaces and vast public squares is enough to tell you that it is truly in a class of its own. # Northern Europe Cruisetours

Beyond the coast and into the continent.

The European continent is a rich kaleidoscope of impressions — from the Champs Élysées to the works of the impressionist masters themselves. Celebrity's two Northern Europe cruisetour itineraries, ranging in length from 8 to 18 nights, will immerse you deep into these historical cityscapes and exciting cultural centers like nothing else can. You'll stay in deluxe accommodations and enjoy a myriad of on-land activities, allowing you to experience both elegance and enrichment on a grand scale. Each adventure is accompanied by a Tour Director, who will serve as both knowledgeable guide and personal concierge, and whose fluency in the local language will add to the depth of your experience.

Amsterdam, Netherlands

Amsterdam is an eclectic mix of old and new, historical charm, and cosmopolitan flair. It's a blend of cultures, but still quintessentially Dutch. The people-watching is rewarding, and the quest for rich history even more so. The city's center is circled by a series of canals, which add an elegance to the surroundings. Spend some time on a boat tour and marvel at the many beautiful bridges while taking in the reflections dancing on the waters. You'll also want to visit Anne Frank's house, where she compiled her famous diary while in hiding during World War II.

Bruges, Belgium

The entire center of this well-preserved medieval town is recognized by UNESCO as a World Heritage site. You can't miss Our Lady's Church, the tallest tower in the city and the place to visit Michelangelo's Madonna. Nearby, you can also visit the beautiful medieval structure called St. John's Hospital. While no longer a working hospital, it's now home to the Memling Museum, the hospital museum, and the old pharmacy.

Brussels, Belgium

Headquarters of the European Union, Brussels has evolved into a multinational power center. In addition to having strong international influences, Brussels is full of culture and pride in its own heritage. Visit the Grand Place, the central market square of Brussels, and, many say, the most beautiful market in the world. From the wild blend of architectural styles to the myriad museums and shops, Brussels won't disappoint.

Northern Europe Cruisetour Destinations

London, England

"Long live the Queen," they say. And rightfully so. You'd be hard-pressed to find any Londoner, much less Her Majesty, willing to leave a city as beautiful and grand as London. Whether your Tour Director is guiding you through Westminster Abbey or St. Paul's Cathedral, or you're visiting the Crown Jewels at the Tower of London, the regal city of London is one destination you won't soon forget.

Paris, France

All that you've heard is true. Paris is simply one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Here, your Tour Director will take you past countless attractions and points of interest. See the Place de la Concorde, take a romantic stroll along the Champs Élysées, and visit Notre Dame. The gleaming city of Paris has, without question, earned its nickname: "The City of Light."

Celebrity's Mediterranean

Where civilization began, your adventure begins.

Tracing your finger across a map of the Mediterranean region is like retracing the progress of history itself. This is where the roots of everything we know today took hold — art and science, drama and medicine, architecture and philosophy. It's where the empires of Istanbul, Athens, and Rome rose and fell. Where civilizations sprang to life in cities like Venice, Sicily, and Barcelona. And it's where deities reigned supreme in Mykonos and Santorini. Only on a Celebrity cruise or cruisetour can you truly feel the drama of the Mediterranean experience while enjoying a level of comfort and service you'll find nowhere else.

Sample Local Flavor

Living museum, sun-splashed playground, cultural crossroads — the Mediterranean is more than a single country, and far more than one defining experience.

There's the food, supplied so generously by the sea, like steaming plates of paella, hearty bouillabaisse in the Côte d'Azur, or freshly speared swordfish in Sicily.

The afternoon sun reflects upon Santorini; details of a church in Florence; the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

There are the spectacular vintages — rioja in Spain, athri in Greece, and robust chiantis, from the rich soils of Italy’s Tuscan countryside. There is the warm subtropical climate that gently caresses the beaches found on nearly every stretch of coastline. And then there is the warmth of the people themselves, who passionately embrace both life and visitors with open arms, happily sharing their bountiful homelands.

Uncover the Mediterranean’s Treasures

Discover the difference between visiting the Mediterranean and truly experiencing it by participating in a fully escorted cruisetour, which will add an inland perspective to the coastal splendor. You’ll venture into Italy’s far northern reaches, soaking in the grandeur of Lago Maggiore, which sits like a perfectly formed shimmering gem at the foot of the Italian Alps. At your leisure, travel along the Venetian canals on gondolas, floating by houses, churches, and other architectural wonders that stoically observe the waterways. You’ll feel the pulse of the latest fashions in Barcelona and the ancient past in Rome. And through it all you’ll be accompanied by your Tour Director, whose fluency in the local language will enhance the feeling that you’re a part of it all.

EXPERIENCES OF A LIFETIME

Get the most out of your Mediterranean vacation, both on land and sea, with great cruisetour packages. See pages 54-59 or visit celebritycruises.com/cruisetours for details.

To view an interactive selection of Mediterranean ports, please visit celebrityseurope.com.

With one staff member for every two guests, it’s no wonder Celebrity delivers attentive service, offering such treats as complimentary chilled towels upon returning from your shore excursions. So go ahead and enjoy the Mediterranean’s ports and shore excursions to the fullest. We’re ready to serve you every step of the way.

Mediterranean

We have created these cruises and cruisetours to introduce you to aspects of the Mediterranean most people overlook. You'll travel through some of the most breathtaking expanses of water in the world — the Mediterranean, the Aegean, and the Adriatic seas. Come ashore at ports in Turkey, Greece, and North Africa that are both charming and majestic, and venture deep into the Italian countryside, connecting with the beauty and rich history at each stop along the way.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Athens Sightseeing & Acropolis, Ancient Corinth & Canal Cruise, Athens Walking Tour

Ports of Call

Barcelona, Spain

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Tapas Tasting, Barcelona City Transfer, Montserrat & Transfer (offered on day of disembarkation)

Bilbao, Spain

This lively and revitalized city on the Bay of Biscay is the center of culture and economic development in Basque Country. It is home to two of the finest art galleries in Spain — the Bilbao Guggenheim Museum and the Fine Arts Museum, which houses works by masters including El Greco, Goya, and Gauguin.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Bilbao & Guggenheim Museum, Bilbao & Tapas

Brussels (Zeebrugge), Belgium

Bordering the delta of the Scheldt, Maas, and Rhine rivers, Zeebrugge could be one of the most unique seaports you visit in this lifetime. It's also the gateway to Brussels, one of the most captivating cities in Europe. Architectural highlights include the Court of Justice, but you'll also want to visit the quaint shopping district or Saint Boniface.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Bruges Sightseeing, Biking Tour to Damme, Bruges Sights & Beer Tasting

Cannes, France

Cannes personifies the charisma of the French Riviera, with its long boardwalks along the sea, the massive yachts anchored in the harbor, and its warm, sunny plazas where the days and nights seem to run together. Above all, the annual film festival, which brings out the stars in abundance, makes this an absolute A-list destination.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Cannes Walking Tour, Monte Carlo & Grand Casino, Nice & French Riviera

Casablanca (Marrakech), Morocco

Casablanca combines the atmosphere and history of times gone by with a touch of modernity. Frenetic yet welcoming, Casablanca is a lively destination. Especially Djemaa el-Fna — the huge square in the medina that is teeming with open-air food stalls, jugglers, storytellers, and snake charmers. The architecture of its French-colonial past can be seen in the graceful white buildings, with their soft lines and attention to detail.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Casablanca & Hassan II Mosque, Fes, Casablanca & Rabat

Cherbourg, France

Because of its location, Cherbourg has played an important role in military campaigns throughout history. It was a major objective of the Allied Forces during the D-Day invasion, and it changed hands several times during the Middle Ages, as France and England fought to establish their sovereign territories. It was even the site of a Civil War naval battle — between the USS Kearsarge and the CSS Alabama.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Mont Saint Michel, D-Day Beaches & Bayeux Tapestry, The Beaches of Normandy

Dubrovnik, Croatia

Established 1,300 years ago on the far southern tip of the Dalmatian Coast, this city once rivaled Venice in terms of its importance. Take a walking tour to the Dominican Monastery and marvel at the finest collection of Renaissance paintings in Dubrovnik, including a painting by Titian. Marble-paved squares, monasteries, and fountains are just a few of the many antiquities that remain as they were years ago.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Walking the City Walls & Maritime Museum, Dalmatian Coastline & Wine Tasting, Konavle 4WD Safari

Ephesus (Kusadasi), Turkey

Once the capital of the Roman province of Asia Minor, this coastal town is now an archeologist's dream. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: House of Virgin Mary & Ephesus, Temple of Artemis, St. John's Basilica & House of Virgin Mary

Florence/Pisa (Livorno), Italy

This beautiful Italian seaport of Livorno, on the shores of the Ligurian Sea, is the gateway to Florence, Pisa, and Tuscany's vast wine country. Pisa is most noted for its famous marble bell tower, the Leaning Tower of Pisa. It's no surprise the tower is still standing (though it has tilted 14 feet since 1370), considering that it resides in the Field of Miracles, known locally as Campo dei Miracoli.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Tuscan Countryside - San Gimignano & Volterra, Scenic Drive & Wine Tasting, Leaning Tower of Pisa

Gibraltar, United Kingdom

The great Rock of Gibraltar is a sight to behold. Towering 1,400 feet above the mouth of the Mediterranean Sea and surrounded by beautiful countryside, it's home to the semi-wild and curiously tailless Barbary apes and St. Michael's Cave, long believed to be bottomless.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Upper Rock Walking Tour, Rock of Gibraltar, Panoramic Gibraltar & Tea

Gijón, Spain

Over 3,000 years ago, according to archeologists, fishermen settled this outpost, drawn by the bounty of the sea. Today, Gijón retains that original spirit, and much of the older part of town's cobblestone streets and stone buildings have been restored. A good place to appreciate Gijón's ties to the ocean is the spectacular Eligio del Horizonte, or Praise to the Horizon, a massive sculpture that gazes seaward.

Istanbul, Turkey

In exotic Istanbul, you could spend an entire day strolling through the Grand Bazaar, exploring the famous Blue Mosque, or wandering through the majestic Topkapi Palace, with its gardens, libraries, and 400-room harem.

Ports of Call

La Rochelle, France

This picturesque port town on the Atlantic was the capital city of French Protestantism from which the founders of Montreal set sail. History-lovers will find signs of the town's turbulent past in the 14th-century towers that guard the old port and the medieval and Renaissance architecture of the fortified Old Town. Beach-lovers will enjoy the sandy beaches and sparkling waters of nearby Île de Ré.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Rochefort & the Castle of Roche Courbon, Botanical Gardens, Ile de Re: the White Isle

Lisbon, Portugal

See why this city stands out above all others as you stroll along elaborate mosaic sidewalks and pass by the Monument to the Discoveries. A quick trolley ride transports you to the cobblestone district of Baixa. Or, if you choose, be lured away and pampered in the resort cities of Cascais and Estoril.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Aix en Provence, Avignon & Wine Tasting at Palace of the Popes, Cassis, Arles & Les Baux

Rhodes, Greece

Rhodes, the friendliest city in the Mediterranean, is situated at the island's northernmost point. Rhodes' only neighbors to the east and west are gleaming blue seas. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Filerimos Local Mezzes & Wine Outing, Walking Tour of Historic Rhodes, Journey to Lindos

Rome (Civitavecchia), Italy

Civitavecchia was settled in 108 A.D. by the Emperor Trajan and has since served faithfully as a gateway to the capital of the Empire — Rome. Once the center of the Ancient World from which emperors ruled over nearly all of western civilization, Rome is still a cultural mecca. Stroll the ancient halls of the Colosseum or gaze upon the ceilings of the Sistine Chapel.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Taste of Rome, Rome - The Eternal City, Angels & Demons, Bike in Tarquinia & Ice Cream

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Mt. Etna, Lava & Wine, Tindari, Taormina

Ports of Call

Southampton, England

Situated on England's south coast, Southampton enjoys one of the best climates in the U.K. You'll find some of Britain's most significant historical places of interest nearby, including Salisbury and Winchester cathedrals and prehistoric Stonehenge. Known as the "Gateway to the World," it was from Southampton port that both the Mayflower and Titanic set sail.

Split, Croatia

Set midway up the Dalmatian Coast, this town is one of the jewels of the Adriatic. A few musts for any visit here include Diocletian's palace, an incredibly well-preserved stronghold that dates back to the 4th century, as well as the Prokurative, a neo-Renaissance complex defined by monumental arcades.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Dalmatian Coastline & Village Life, Historic Split Walking Tour, Best of Split & Its Countryside

Tangier, Morocco

If you had to describe Tangier's culture and cuisine in one word, it would probably be "diverse." You're likely to see a little bit of everything — from traditional open-air markets like the Grand Socco to world-famous designer shops, cafés reminiscent of the 1930s to trendy discos, and windsurfers to tourists on camels.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Tangier, Tetouan

Tunis, Tunisia

Tunis is an intoxicating mixture of Arabic, African, and French European influences. No visit to Tunis would be complete without a visit to the souk — Arabic for market. This large, densely packed shopping center is home to goldsmiths, rug weavers, craftsmen, food stalls, performance artists, and much more. Nearby is the 9th-century Zitouna Mosque — or Great Mosque.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Bardo Museum, Medina & the Souks, Medina & Sidi Bou Said, Sidi & Carthage Bou Said

Valletta, Malta

In addition to a number of highly significant works of art, including the largest painting ever produced by Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio, this town is known for the many fortifications built by the Knights of Malta, who for years helped care for European pilgrims and crusaders en route to and from the Holy Land.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Harbor Cruise & Shopping, Mdina & Historic Valletta, Swimming with Dolphins, Three Cities & Harbor Cruise

Venice, Italy

One of the world's most beautiful cities also happens to be one of its most unusual. Venice is actually spread over 120 islands in the Adriatic Sea. Because the city is connected by canals instead of streets, a good way to see Venice is on a romantic gondola ride. The epicenter of the city is St. Mark's Square, where you'll find the 900-year-old St. Mark's Basilica.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Murano Glassworks, San Giorgio & Gondola Ride, Grand Canal & St. Mark's Basilica After Hours, Venetian Waterways

Mediterranean Cruisetours

Warm up to the Mediterranean.

Beyond the Mediterranean's charming ports and expansive beaches another world of wonder awaits. Celebrity's Mediterranean cruisetours have been created to seamlessly dovetail with our cruise itineraries, allowing you to experience every facet of this fascinating region to the fullest extent. Our four comprehensive Mediterranean itineraries feature cruisetours ranging in length from 13 to 18 nights and include deluxe accommodations on land as well as a wealth of included activities. Each cruisetour is accompanied by a knowledgeable Tour Director, familiar with local customs and fluent in the local language, who will serve as both your guide and concierge.

Window shopping in Venice; colorful reflections in the canals; enjoying the fruits of the region.

Barcelona, Spain

Considered by many to be one of the trendiest and most romantic cities in Europe, Barcelona is truly a sight to behold. Both visitors and locals alike enjoy trips to Las Ramblas, where you can admire the famous painter Miró's work, and the Liceu Opera House, among other famous landmarks. Don't miss the breathtaking cathedrals in the Gothic Quarter or the incomparable works of architect Antonio Gaudí and Pablo Picasso.

Madrid, Spain

Madrid is located at the exact geographic center of Spain, surrounded by magnificent scenery. Your Madrid experience will provide you the opportunity to visit the Prado Museum, one of the world's largest art galleries, featuring masterpieces by El Greco, Velázquez, and Goya. Enjoy a side trip to Toledo where you can view the beautiful local architecture of this medieval city.

Florence, Italy

Founded by Julius Caesar himself, Florence is known as the birthplace of the Renaissance. History and art come together in this picturesque land, where masterpieces, like Michelangelo's David, can be seen in the city's many museums, churches, and galleries. The city is known for its simple and delicious cuisine made from the freshest ingredients.

Mediterranean Cruisetour Destinations

Stresa, Italy

This small town is set on the shores of the crystal-clear Lago Maggiore. The scene from the piazza on the wharf is like few you've ever experienced. As the palm trees slowly sway in the afternoon breeze, you can gaze at the Italian Alps rising majestically in the distance, creating the perfect frame for the Borromean Islands, which sit in the foreground.

Milan, Italy

Despite a decidedly modern appearance, this mecca for fashion and the arts boasts a number of beautiful historic buildings, including the massive Gothic cathedral and La Scala Opera Museum in the heart of the city.

Rome, Italy

Centuries of breathtaking history have shaped the Eternal City. From the ancient halls of the Colosseum, where Roman gladiators once did battle, to Michelangelo's opulent frescoed ceiling in the Sistine Chapel, the beautiful layers of Rome's intricate past lead many to consider it Europe's premier destination.

Verona, Italy

While Verona was once the center of the Roman Empire, what attracts romantic souls is a seemingly nondescript balcony at the Villa Capelletti. It is here that two young lovers named Romeo and Juliet allegedly professed eternal devotion.

Venice, Italy

This archipelago lives up to everything you've imagined. Enjoy a romantic ride along the charming Grand Canal to the Rialto, which is filled with quaint shops and bistros. From there, float on to San Marco, the city's epicenter, where you'll find St. Mark's Square and the 900-year-old St. Mark's Basilica.

Celebrity's Transatlantic

Transatlantic crossings, transcendent experiences.

In a time of high-speed aircraft, travel by ship is meant to be slower and more deliberate, allowing you time to savor every nuance of the experience. Gaze upon the beautiful views of islands like Puerto Rico and Tortola from your ocean vantage point. Watch spectacular coastal cities like Cherbourg and Lisbon slowly emerge on the horizon. All while enjoying a world where your comfort is the sole focus of our staff. Set sail with us and let us help you recapture the romance of a bygone era.

Your Ultimate Voyage Awaits

Every detail onboard a Celebrity Transatlantic cruise sparkles. Put yourself in the hands of one of our expert masseuses for an hour or two and allow them to transport you into a state of sheer bliss where nothing else exists, save for the sweet sensation of all tension exiting your body. Enjoy delectable meals prepared by chefs who have been inspired by the finest ingredients, then presented at your table by a staff focused on your contentment. Served on hand-blown crystal, fine china and silver, and freshly pressed linens, these feasts are both culinary and performance masterpieces. If you'd like to expand your horizons while voyaging toward new ones, we offer extensive ways to make each day onboard an enriching experience. Spend an afternoon with our world-class Sommeliers, who will show you the cerebral yet sensual facets of fine wine, introducing you to vintages from many of the countries you may be visiting, as well as selections from the Celebrity Vineyards. Or train with one of our Chefs, who will help hone your culinary skills during a workshop.

Blue Sea, White Gloves

On an extended Transatlantic voyage, you'll have ample opportunity to get to know everything about your ship — which restaurant menus you enjoy most, what time the sun peeks over the horizon, where the quiet spots are when you want to retire with a compelling book. But long before you familiarize yourself with your ship, our attentive staff will have gotten to know you — what you like for dessert, how dry you like your martini, and most important of all, your name. With one staff member for every two guests onboard, you'll find that a friendly face is always there to see to your needs, whether that means providing a fresh towel after your workout or a fresh bouquet of your favorite flowers delivered to your suite each morning.

Transatlantic Shore Excursions

Make every stop the start of something new.

Every time your ship stops at a new exciting destination, you have an opportunity to totally immerse yourself in a place and see what life is like beyond the tourist guidebooks. To meet people instead of watching them. And to do things that, like your voyage itself, transcend the ordinary. View the beauty of Lisbon from the vantage point of an elevated tramway. Or sample the sweet potions crafted by a rum distillery in San Juan. So much awaits you on every shore.

EXPERIENCES OF A LIFETIME

We suggest booking your shore excursions early. To view all shore excursion offerings and pricing, visit celebritycruises.com/shoreex.

Agadir, Morocco

Often referred to as the “Miami of Morocco,” Agadir is unlike any other city in the country. Almost totally rebuilt after the devastating earthquake of 1961, this once-quiet fishing port has developed into a major resort town. It features magnificent sandy beaches, over 300 days of sunshine a year, sophisticated hotels, dining, and a lively nightlife.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Agadir City Tour, Taroudant

Brest, France

This city is thought by some to offer some of the best seafood restaurants in France. You'll also find some of the country's most dramatic coastal scenery, with long stretches of craggy coastline interrupted only by some of the nicest beaches to be found in this part of the country.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Brest Botanical Gardens, Brest Naval History

Cartagena, Spain

During the 16th and 17th centuries, when Spain held sway over the rest of Europe and the New World, much of its naval power was projected from the port of Cartagena. Many of the coastal fortifications from that era still exist, although instead of guarding the city they provide splendid views of the harbor.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Cartagena Walking Tour, Journey to Murica, Cartagena City Tour

Ports of Call

Cape Liberty, New Jersey

This cruise port, the first in New Jersey in 40 years, provides the perfect setting to the beginning or end of any voyage. From the vantage point of the deck you can look out over the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge, the Statue of Liberty, New York Harbor, and all of lower Manhattan.

Cornwall (Falmouth), England

Falmouth is Cornwall's premier seaside resort. Its wide, sparkling beaches, warmed by the Gulf Stream, make it the preferred vacation destination for families in southwest England and beyond. It also boasts the third-largest natural harbor in the world. Other attractions include nearby Pendennis Castle, built by King Henry VIII to defend against the French army. Falmouth's lively town center also features a charming array of craft shops, seafood restaurants, pubs, and more.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Cornwall Coast & Country, Countryside & Cornish Cream Tea, Land's End & St. Ives

Dover, England

Cut by wind and sea over the past 100 million years, the White Cliffs of Dover stand as a symbol of England's legendary strength and character. Among Dover's attractions are the massive Dover Castle and the unique archeological site of the Roman Painted House, uncovered by a road crew in 1970, 28 feet underground.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: London's Splendor & Highlights, Canterbury, London & Da Vinci Trail

Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Those who think Fort Lauderdale stands in the shadow of Miami are in for a very pleasant surprise. The city has matured into a gracious destination with sophisticated cuisine, nightclubs, and a personality all its own. The restaurants and shopping along Las Olas Boulevard and Himmarshee alone offer proof that Fort Lauderdale has blossomed into something truly special, all while retaining its youthful spirit.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Everglades Airboat Ride (Offered on Day of Disembarkation)

King's Wharf, Bermuda

Perched on the tip of Bermuda's West End, King's Wharf is home to the impressive Royal Navy Dockyard and a crafts market, where local artists display their wares. In nearby Somerset Village, you'll find the spectacle of the world's smallest drawbridge, which opens a mere 22 inches, just wide enough to accommodate a sailboat's mast.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Famous Homes & Hideaways Cruise, Bermuda Island Tour

La Palma, Canary Islands

Natural beauty permeates La Palma, from the rugged mountainous interior to its rocky coasts and black sand beaches. Because La Palma is less of a tourist destination than its sister islands, you'll have the endless sunshine all to yourself, although you will find a wealth of sight-seeing and shopping possibilities in the lively capital, Santa Cruz.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Panoramic Santa Cruz, Caldera de Taburiente, Hiking La Palma Island

Ports of Call

Lanzarote, Canary Islands

With its perfect weather, perfect beaches, and a lush landscape dotted with volcanoes and rare plant life, it's easy to see why Lanzarote is fast becoming one of Europe's favorite vacation destinations. You'll want to sample the local cuisine, including tapas, paella and, of course, fresh seafood.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Panoramic Lanzarote, Camel Ride & Fire Mountain, Trekking on Moonscape

Madeira (Funchal), Portugal

Funchal, the largest city on the Madeira island, is known as the "Floating Garden" because of its remarkable variety of vegetation, fruit, and flowers. Everywhere you'll look you'll find sprawling scenic splendor, from the deeply gouged cliffs to the lush verdant valleys reminiscent of parts of Hawaii.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: City, Cable Car, Monte & Toboggan Ride, Scenic Madeira, Legendary Funchal Views

Málaga, Spain

Málaga is the gateway to the Andalusian countryside and the Costa del Sol, where you can dig your toes into the sand of some of the region's most impressive beaches. Málaga also boasts a number of impressive palaces, including the Moorish Alcazaba and Gibralfaro. Pablo Picasso was born here and several galleries show his work.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Alhambra Palace Gardens, Village of Mijas, Tapas Tasting in Málaga

Miami, Florida

The beauty of South Beach's art deco architecture and sparkling beaches are set against a rich backdrop provided by the Latin flavor of the Cuban émigré community. Come nightfall Miami doesn't merely go out, it enthusiastically celebrates the onset of every evening with a passion that you'll find contagious.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Miami Highlights, Everglades Safari Tour (Offered on Day of Disembarkation)

Nassau, Bahamas

Long after you return home, you'll continue to hear the sweet reverberations of Bahamian steel drums, their carefree melodies transporting you to a place where you're perpetually on vacation. They'll provide a constant and pleasant reminder of the sophisticated dining and shopping, as well as the shallow warm waters gently lapping at your feet.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Discover Atlantis, Seaworld Explorer

Philipsburg, St. Maarten

St. Maarten has two sides — a French and a Dutch — and countless faces. You can stroll along the magnificent beaches for hours, spend just as long browsing through the endless French boutiques and duty-free shops, or visit sights like the cliffs and caves of Cupecoy Beach. This is an island that truly offers something for everyone.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Butterfly Farm & Marigot, St. Maarten Sensation & Beach Escape with Lunch, Shipwreck Snorkel Adventure

Ponta Delgada, Azores

Formed from the peaks of a vast underwater volcanic mountain range, Ponta Delgada is considered by many to be the most important city in the Azores. Volcanic craters, gardens, and lakes abound in this beautiful city on the island of São Miguel. Experience a culinary delight in the sugar beet, Ponta Delgada's most famous export.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Village of Sete Cidades & Wine Tasting, Furnas Valley with Lunch

San Juan, Puerto Rico

While San Juan is a vibrant, modern port city, it also has one foot anchored proudly in the past, dating back to its time as a Spanish colonial outpost. Many of the old structures, including forts and cathedrals, date back to the early 16th century and the conquest by Juan Ponce de León in 1508.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Old and New San Juan City Tour (Offered on Day of Disembarkation)

Tenerife, Canary Islands

The largest Canary Island is dominated by 12,198-foot Mount Teide. The cuisine features locally grown fruits (banana, mango, and papaya) and fresh fish. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: North Island Panoramic, World Heritage & Wine Land, Cañadas del Teide Full Day

Tortola, British Virgin Islands

Besides being one of the most scenic islands in the Caribbean, Tortola offers a decidedly cultural and historical side. SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Beach Escape, Coast-to-Coast Scenic Drive, Dolphin Encounter
