Celebrity's Onboard Experience

The extraordinary feeling of ahhh.

A Celebrity cruise is more than a vacation. It's a voyage into a world where all your needs are met by a staff dedicated to ensuring that every moment exceeds your expectations. From spectacular dining to indulgent spa treatments, you can satisfy body and soul. There are countless entertainment possibilities for all ages — from activities that have been created just for kids to entertaining nightlife for adults. Celebrity Cruises® plans every facet of your cruise and cruisetour to ensure a totally seamless experience. That way you're able to savor every moment.

We Pay Attention to Detail. And You.

Sleep a little more blissfully upon Egyptian cotton linens. Enjoy butler service in all suites, or special amenities with Concierge Class staterooms, something offered by no other premium cruise line.

Dine in restaurants that have received some of the highest culinary awards at sea, or arrange for a gourmet masterpiece to be brought to your private veranda.

Morning coffee on your veranda, courtesy of your stateroom butler; a night of fun in Fortunes Casino; unwinding pool-side; fresh-cut flowers and luxurious European bedding.

And because all Celebrity cruises feature one staff member for every two guests, we're able to provide you with a level of attention to which you'll gladly become accustomed. Whether that means complimentary hot cocoa upon your return from a shore excursion or nightly turndown service, you can be certain that we will go to great lengths to ensure your uninterrupted enjoyment.

Oases of Tranquility. Oceans of Possibilities.

Celebrity is the only cruise line to offer Sensory Heaven ceremonies at the AquaSpa® by Elemis®†, as well as the first to offer acupuncture‡, both of which complement our wide range of health and fitness options. And even though the summer sun shines for 23 hours a day in Alaska, we offer a dizzying array of nightlife possibilities. Experience Las Vegas-style shows in the Celebrity Theater, enjoy the last dance in the Rendez-Vous Lounge, or take in a first-run movie in the cinema.

Feeling lucky? Pay a visit to Fortunes Casino. And if you're looking for relaxation, slip into something more comfortable, like the Martini Bar, the Champagne Bar, or Cova® Café, or just enjoy a romantic stroll through the gardens in the Conservatory*.

*Available on Millennium class vessels only.

Celebrity's Cuisine

Nourish the soul.

Our chefs see every meal as an opportunity to elevate the practice of gourmet artistry, and revel in escorting diners on a flavorful voyage through a world of culinary indulgence. Dishes start with the freshest possible ingredients, but the most important element in each meal is passion. From preparation to presentation, we go to incredible lengths to ensure that every mouthful is an unforgettable experience.

Your Table is Waiting

One of the extraordinary things about a Celebrity cruise is the opportunity to depart from your routine. And we think the only important decisions you should have to make are whether to have a full breakfast in the dining room or croissants and mimosas on deck, or whether to indulge in steak or sushi for dinner. Once you decide, we make it easy. Our main dining rooms, specialty restaurants*, themed cafés, room service, and snack presentations are at your service, spanning 24 hours a day.

Thirsting for Options?

In addition to our formal and more casual restaurants, you can choose from a number of venues that offer local flavors from all over the world. Stroll into Cova® Café for a rejuvenating espresso or after-dinner drink. If you're in the mood for romance and allure, you can select from 26 different concoctions in the Martini Bar, or indulge in a little champagne in the Champagne Bar.

An evening to remember; a warm soufflé for dessert; Comparative Wineglass Workshop using Riedel Crystal, Vinum wine glasses.

A New Toast To Fine Wine

We're pleased to have Riedel Crystal®, makers of fine crystal and glassware, designate Celebrity Cruises as the first in the industry to conduct their Comparative Wineglass Workshops. Our Cellarmasters and Sommeliers have been certified and trained by Riedel professionals to conduct this unique workshop. Experience firsthand how the size and shape of a glass affects the perception of wine. This profound engagement of the senses will change the way you enjoy wine.

Food for Thought

Celebrity Cruises® features a number of dining options designed to accommodate the following special diets: diabetic, low-fat, low-sodium, low-cholesterol, kosher, gluten-free†, and lactose-free‡. You may also find something light and healthy at the AquaSpa® Café or on our light menu. In keeping with the healthy approach embraced by many of our guests, all fried items served on Celebrity cruises are made with zero trans fats.

Celebrity's Alaska

Celebrity's Alaska

It's the largest state. Made larger than life.

Alaska is more than a state. It's a state of mind. A Celebrity cruise and cruisetour will introduce you to its many moods — the serene fjords, deceptively silent glaciers, misty rainforests and towering mountains, rich cultural heritage, and even richer biodiversity — paired with a level of unmatched comfort and service. When you travel with Celebrity Cruises®, you don't merely visit Alaska, you allow the spirit of the land and its people to flow through you.

Discover Our Alaska

Summer in Celebrity's Alaska is more than a simple snapshot, it's a feast for the senses. Watch as massive Hubbard glacier reshapes the land before your eyes. Cruising through the Inside Passage you can see colonies of seals and whales roaming the bays.

Observe herds of caribou thundering across the tundra in Denali National Park and brown bears foraging for salmon from the comfort of your luxury traincar, on the Wilderness Express®. Or absorb the cultural richness of Alaska's indigenous residents like the Tlingit of Ketchikan, who pay homage to the land and the animals that call it home. To help you uncover all the mysteries hidden amongst Alaska's secluded bays and remote outposts, each cruise will be accompanied by a naturalist, whose interpretations will enrich your experience.

Adventure Beyond the Coastline

Delve deeper into Alaska by joining us on one of our many cruisetour packages. With an experienced Tour Director at your side, who will serve as your personal guide and concierge, you'll travel aboard a luxury traincar or motorcoach. On these extensive adventures you'll do more than see things, you'll experience them. Pan for gold in Fairbanks, stand in the shadows of Mt. McKinley, ride a tramway to the summit of Mt. Alyeska, or just sit back and enjoy the 360° panoramic views from the comfort of your traincar. The beauty of these places — like Denali and Banff national parks and Whistler, British Columbia — will leave an indelible impression on you. At every stop along the way on your cruisetour, you're encouraged to get a feel for each place, not just meeting people but taking part in the extensive shore and land excursions offered. If you'd prefer to explore on your own, our Sea & StaySM packages allow you to add a few extra nights to your vacation at embarkation or debarkation points.

A WORLD OF EXPLORATION

To make your Alaska cruise an even more memorable experience, each sailing will be accompanied by a naturalist knowledgeable on every aspect of Alaska — including its wildlife populations, its geography, its culture, and its history. This esteemed guest will not only provide lectures and informal talks throughout your voyage, he or she will provide you with an incredible insider's perspective on what makes this place so enriching.

Astoria, Oregon

Hundreds of Victorian homes line the steep, wooded hillsides of America's oldest settlement west of the Rockies. Stroll through the revitalized 1920s-era downtown of this picturesque community set at the mouth of the Columbia River, or travel a few miles to Fort Clatsop, where Lewis and Clark encamped during the winter of 1805-06.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Mount St. Helens, Seafood Cooking School & Wine Tasting, Flavel House Tea & Scones

Ports of Call

Icy Strait Point, Alaska

For thousands of years, the Tlingit Indians have called this place home. Located just 22 miles southeast of Glacier Bay National Park, Icy Strait Point offers travelers the chance to view wildlife like humpback whales, eagles, and brown bears, or to explore monuments to the region's fishing heritage.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Whale & Marine Mammals Cruise, Remote Bush Exploration & Brown Bear Search, Saltwater Salmon Fishing, Glacier Bay Flightseeing, ATV Expedition

Inside Passage, Alaska

(Scenic Cruising)

Glaciers can exert powerful forces, but they can also wield a delicately artistic brush, leaving behind a scene of breathtaking beauty. Alaska's famed Inside Passage is a labyrinth of fjords and hidden bays where whales and sea lions find refuge during the summer months.

Juneau, Alaska

Alaska's capital city gracefully balances frontier ruggedness and cosmopolitan flair. Mendenhall Glacier, a river of ice measuring 1.5 miles in width and over 6 miles in length, hugs Juneau's north side and is part of the Juneau Icefield, a 1,500-square-mile ice field that feeds 38 large glaciers.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Glacier Dogsled Adventure via Helicopter, Whale-Watching & Orca Point Lodge, Mendenhall Glacier Float Trip

Ketchikan, Alaska

Known as the “Salmon Capital of the World,” Ketchikan is also the ancestral home of the Tlingit people, who have carved the world’s largest collection of totem poles. The name comes from the Tlingit phrase “katch kanna,” which roughly translated means, “spread wings of a thundering eagle,” a tribute to the hundreds of eagles that nest in the mountain forests above this small outpost.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Rain Forest Canoe Adventure, Misty Fjords Seaplane Adventure, Wilderness Exploration & Crab Feed, Saxman Native Totem Village

Monterey, California

Set 350 miles north of Los Angeles, this city has deep connections to the fishing industry and was the inspiration for the John Steinbeck novel, Cannery Row. Today it boasts one of the world’s largest aquariums, as well as a vast offshore kelp forest that attracts divers who share the waters with sea otters and sea lions.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: 17-Mile Drive & Carmel Sightseeing, Monterey Bay Aquarium and Carmel Mission

Nanaimo, British Columbia, Canada

In Vancouver Island’s second-largest city you can stroll along a newly redeveloped waterfront with walkways, boardwalks, gardens, and floating restaurants. Aside from its natural beauty and extensive green spaces, Nanaimo’s claim to fame is The World Championship Bathtub Race, in which small motorboats outfitted with fiberglass tubs race across the 36-mile Georgia Strait.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Cathedral Grove & Wildlife Recovery Center, Port Alberni Steam-Powered Adventure, Qualicum Beach Village and Milner Gardens Woodland Tea, Cowichan Valley Wine Tour

Prince Rupert, British Columbia, Canada

This North Coast outpost bills itself as “Where Canada’s Wilderness Begins.” Native North Americans have called this home for over 10,000 years, but despite the recent growth, thanks in part to a thriving arts community, it is a place where eagles, bears, and whales still far outnumber humans.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Butze Rain Forest Walk, Wilderness Jet Boat Adventure, Kaien Island Adventure

San Diego, California

Originally settled by a contingent of Franciscan friars in the mid-18th century, San Diego has flourished to become one of America’s largest and most attractive cities. Bordered by the Anza-Borrego Desert, the Laguna Mountains, and the Pacific Ocean, it’s blessed with a year-round Mediterranean climate, which only adds to the attraction of its 70 miles of beaches.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: San Diego and La Jolla Highlights with Airport Drop-Off (offered on day of disembarkation)

San Francisco, California

One of the world’s most exciting, and eclectic cities, San Francisco offers visitors a wealth of possibilities — iconic landmarks like Fisherman’s Wharf, Lombard Street, and Alcatraz Island, as well as man-made wonders, like the Golden Gate Bridge, and nods to the past, like the cable cars on Powell Street.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: San Francisco City Sightseeing, Alcatraz Island & Sausalito

Seattle, Washington

Visitors to the Emerald City find a fusion of American, Asian, and Native American cultures, set against a backdrop of Puget Sound and the Olympic Mountains. A visit here would be incomplete without sampling some of the freshest seafood to be found along the Pacific Rim as well as a cup of Seattle's famous coffee.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Seattle Essentials with Airport Drop-off (offered on day of disembarkation)

Seward, Alaska

Like a giant sentry, the 3,000-foot Mount Marathon stands guard over this gateway to the Kenai Fjords wilderness. For those inspired to travel beyond its outskirts, a wealth of wildlife viewing possibilities await. The village is named for William Seward, who negotiated the 1867 purchase of Alaska from Russia for $7,200,000, or approximately 2.5 cents per acre.

Sitka, Alaska

This tranquil and eclectic fishing village was once part of the expansive Czarist Russian Empire, as evidenced by the onion-domed Russian cathedral perched atop Castle Hill. What is now the Sitka National Historical Park was once the site of a battlefield where Russians and native Tlingits fought for their land, and their lives.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The Anchorage Downtown Marriott is right in the heart of the city, with convenient access to everything†.

Denali National Park, Alaska

Home to North America's highest peak, Mt. McKinley, Denali is a popular destination for adventure-seekers and explorers. Fairbanks, Alaska

Like many towns in Alaska, Fairbanks gained its renown mainly as a Gold Rush town. In fact, Fairbanks still has working gold mines. You can buy gold-nugget jewelry and native handicrafts, such as porcupine-quill jewelry. Your cruisetour may include a Fairbanks City Tour, a cruise on the Riverboat Discovery sternwheeler with a stop at an Athabascan Indian Village, or a visit to the famous El Dorado Gold Mine to try your luck at panning for gold.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Pike's Waterfront Lodge welcomes visitors with an inviting fireplace, rustic charm and beautiful Alaskan art†.

Seward, Alaska

The land portion of your Alaska cruisetour begins or ends in Seward, a popular fishing village surrounded by the unrivaled beauty of the Kenai Wildlife Refuge, the Alaska Maritime National Refuge, the Chugach National Forest and the Kenai Fjords National Park. As you might expect, opportunities for up-close-and-personal encounters with wildlife abound.

Cruisetours with overnight stays here include free time for optional activities such as trout and salmon fishing, a glacier flightseeing tour, a jetboat safari or a relaxing river float trip.

Canadian Rockies & Whistler Cruisetours

Step into the majesty of the Canadian Rockies.

These are the “other” Rocky Mountains, less traveled but no less stunning. Our luxurious Canadian Rockies and Whistler cruisetours will escort you deep into some of Canada’s most remote terrain, retracing the footsteps of its earliest settlers. Travel aboard the Rocky Mountaineer[®], through imposing peaks in Banff, along the road to breathtaking Jasper, past vast waterways in Kamloops, and into the bustling cities of Calgary and Vancouver. Or ride the Whistler Mountaineer[®] to Whistler, whose steep mountainsides, rushing rivers, and vast forests attract adventurers every season of the year.

- By Land and Sea The 12- and 13-night Canadian Rockies and the 10-night Whistler cruisetours include your 7-night Hubbard Glacier Cruise aboard Mercury[®]. For complete itineraries, see pages 56-58.

The Rocky Mountaineer; Vancouver harbor at dusk; arm-in-arm in Whistler Village, British Columbia.

Banff, Alberta, Canada

Deep in the Bow River Valley, at the foot of the Cascade Mountains, lies Banff, the picturesque home of Banff National Park, as well as populations of bears, cougars, and mountain goats. Your cruisetour includes a trip to the top of Sulphur Mountain on the Banff Gondola for spectacular views of Bow Falls, extensive forests and glacial lakes, Surprise Corner, and the Hoodoos rock formations.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Nestled in an idyllic setting, the Rimrock Resort offers awe-inspiring vistas and captivating wildlife-viewing†.

Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Although Calgary is a bustling, cosmopolitan city, you can't shake the feeling that cowboys might drive a herd of cattle around the corner at any moment, a vibe kept alive by the Calgary Stampede held each summer. As part of your cruisetour, enjoy complimentary admission into the Calgary Tower, with its glass observation deck that overlooks a city that has managed to maintain the balance between cowboy and cosmopolitan.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The Fairmont Palliser® is a distinctive historical landmark in elegant surroundings†.

Jasper, Alberta, Canada

Jasper is on the edge of the true Canadian wilderness — a place from where you can easily launch a mini-expedition up a glacier or go on a wildlife viewing safari with a local guide in search of mountain sheep and elk. In every direction, the Alberta Rockies, believed by some to be the most beautiful mountain range anywhere, crest along the horizon.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The Jasper Park Lodge, which has earned a 5-star rating, is situated on the shores of Lac Beauvert†.

Canadian Rockies & Whistler / Cruisetours

Kamloops, British Columbia, Canada

The location of this town, at the confluence of the north and south branches of the Thompson River, makes it a haven for anglers, kayakers, hikers, and mountain bikers.

Quesnel, British Columbia, Canada

While Quesnel once saw its share of fortune seekers pass through, these days people come seeking outdoor recreation opportunities as well as a look at oddities like the world's largest gold pan — nearly 18 feet in diameter!

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

For years, Vancouver has been North America's best-kept secret, but that is changing. The Winter Olympics will arrive in 2010, and film producers have made Vancouver North America's third-largest production center, thanks to the scenic beauty of the surroundings. Your visit includes complimentary admission to the Vancouver Lookout at the Harbor Centre Tower as well as a Vancouver City Tour, featuring views of Lions Gate Bridge, historic Gastown, Stanley Park, and Granville Island.

ACCOMMODATIONS: The sophisticated hospitality of the Vancouver Sheraton Wall Centre features spectacular gardens and a 12,000-square-foot health club†.

Whistler, British Columbia, Canada

Once this spectacular resort town shakes off its winter coat, things come to life here in a most spectacular fashion. Mountain bike or hike among the high-mountain meadows, marveling at the last vestiges of snow stubbornly clinging to the surrounding 10,000-foot peaks. Take a backcountry wildlife tour by jeep or a Zip Trek eco-tour through the forest canopy, deftly moving between the massive pines. Or just reflect back on the breathtaking views you enjoyed on your way into town aboard the Whistler Mountaineer.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Gas fireplaces, balconies and fully appointed kitchens are just a few of Delta Whistler Village Suites' unique and charming amenities†.

Celebrity's Canada and New England

Celebrity's Canada & New England

Explore the living color of the historic Northeast.

There is a scientific explanation behind the annual arrival of autumn foliage, but science alone cannot adequately convey the splendor of an entire mountainside erupting in brilliant red, orange, and gold hues. The intensity of this display personifies the eastern Canadian and New England coastlines, where hardwood forests extend down to the sea, interrupted only by charming maritime hamlets and sophisticated cultural centers.

A Celebration of Historic Beauty

The history of these ports will permeate your senses. Two nations sprang to life from these outposts, and an entire world's history was altered by the events that transpired here. At the Musée du Fort in Quebec

City, you can observe a living diorama come to life as a century of conflict between the French and English unfolds in places like the Plains of Abraham and Fort Howe in St. John. You'll see how the battles left a nation divided, separated by language and cultural barriers yet united under a common flag. In Sydney, observe the fusion of Afro-European cultures that serves as a microcosm of the North American melting pot. Our guides will direct you along this voyage and help put the rich legacy that remains in its wake into context.

At every stop along the way, you'll see how each port embraces its ties to the sea in its own unique way. Bike along the shores of the St. Lawrence River in Quebec City, or just wander from sidewalk bistro to fashionable boutique. Stroll through the village of Kennebunkport, marveling at the dignity of the 18th-century Victorian mansions that stand in stark contrast to the rugged Maine coastline. Feel free to enjoy nature at its most sublime, watching the ebbing and flowing tides in the Bay of Fundy — the most extreme tidal changes anywhere in the world, or take in first light from the vantage point of Acadia National Park's Cadillac Mountain, where you can be the first in the U.S. to toast a new day.

New England & Canada Shore Excursions

Step onto shore and back in time.

There is a timelessness to this place, an echo to a time long forgotten. And it's waiting for you on the shores of these ports of call. Take a shore excursion and walk through the homes of great writers in Charlottetown, visit a lighthouse in Portland that once guided captains back to the safety of their home port, or travel back in time by touring mansions in Bar Harbor that once belonged to the world's wealthiest industrialists. Go blueberry picking or antiquing, or just wander through the quiet halls of a maritime museum in Halifax or St. John, contemplating a time when life was simpler.

Bar Harbor, Maine

The list of residents inhabiting this part of Mount Desert Island once read like a who's who of America's richest citizens — Rockefeller, Vanderbilt, and Carnegie, to name a few. Now anyone can come and visit the adjacent Acadia National Park, which offers a network of hiking trails leading to some of the region's most breathtaking views of the north Atlantic.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Bar Harbor Land & Sea, Bar Harbor Whale Watching

Cape Liberty, New Jersey

This new cruise port, the first in New Jersey in 40 years, provides the perfect setting to the beginning or end of any voyage. From the vantage point of the deck you can look out over the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge, the Statue of Liberty, New York Harbor, and all of lower Manhattan.

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada

Nestled in the harbor of the same name, Charlottetown exudes both a nautical charm and a Victorian sensibility, with a historic waterfront set against homes that retain much of their original personality. And of course, no visit to Prince Edward Island would be complete without sampling the local mussels, which are some of the best in the world.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Island Drive & Anne of Green Gables Tour, History & Culture by double-decker bus

Ports of Call

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada

Located on the shores of the world's second-largest natural harbor, the "City of Trees" offers a metropolitan sophistication set against the pastoral beauty of Canada's maritime region. An extensive network of walking trails extends from the waterfront out to a series of beautiful parks and vibrant gardens, inviting exploration.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Tea at the Halifax Citadel, Famous Peggys Cove Fishing Village

Portland, Maine

You'll love wandering along the cobblestone walkways and back alleys of the Old Port, browsing through galleries and other eclectic shops and breathing in the aromas of freshly cooked seafood that waft into the street. Or if you'd prefer, you can walk uphill toward the shops of Congress Street, gazing back at the islands of Casco Bay.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Portland Highlights & Lighthouse, Kennebunkport, L.L. Bean Freeport Shopping Transfer

Quebec City, Quebec, Canada

The sense of French provinciality still echoes off the walls of this old city — in the language, the cuisine, and the architecture. Walk the cobblestone alleyways past stone houses, churches, and cafés, and admire abandoned military fortifications that at one time helped to hold invading forces at bay.

SHORE EXCURSIONS INCLUDE: Ste. Anne-de-Beaupré & Montmorency Falls, Old Quebec Walk & Wine Tasting
